

Medical Staff

- Conduct initial intake; take patient history; perform EKGs, Injections, and Blood work/labs for patients per current OSHA guidelines; check ketones and glucose levels per company guidelines.
- Record blood pressure and weight during each visit; where needed, set weekly goals and work with patients to achieve these goals; monitor and record weekly and cumulative weight loss progress.
- Conduct daily patient visits; review food journals; identify challenges and work with patients to find solutions.
- Teach Diet and Nutrition classes; conduct tours for prospective patients.
- Schedule and confirm doctor's visits, labs, diet classes for patients; prepare progress reports and medical releases when needed; document clinical results in patient and doctor records.
- Meet personal quotas and contribute to clinic reaching set goals.

Requirements

- Completion certificate from a Medical Assistant, Phlebotomy, EMT or other related program; RN or LPN degree.
- Excellent clinical skills, including Venipuncture, Injections, EKGs, Blood Pressure.
- Willingness and ability to reach some set sales goals in addition to clinical duties.
- Prior Retail, Sales or Customers Service experience is preferred, but not required.