

Weight Loss Consultant

- Conduct initial patient consultations to assess individual needs and set appropriate weight loss goals.
- Provide ongoing support and motivation which contribute to patient success.
- Be an educational resource for patients by providing them with information about company products and services that will enhance their weight loss efforts.
- Field initial inquiry calls, schedule appointments; monitor patient attendance and initiate follow up contact as needed.
- Responsible for meeting personal quotas and contributing to clinic reaching set goals.

Requirements

- Be motivated – and motivational! This will help you help both patients and employees achieve their goals;
- Must have prior Sales, Customer Service, or Retail experience;
- Have excellent communication skills that allow you to effectively counsel and educate new and current patients;
- Be able to lead by example, including having a professional appearance that reflects your own healthy lifestyle choices;
- Have a genuine interest in weight loss and nutrition!